

Why Patient Transfer Skills Matter

Prevents injuries to both patients and caregivers. Promotes patient comfort and dignity. Essential for healthcare professionals and caregivers.

Objectives of the Course: The students at the end of the course shall be able to

1. Understand the importance of the patient transfer skills in patients with movement dysfunction
2. Demonstrate effective transfer skills for paraplegic population
3. Demonstrate effective transfer skills for stroke patients
4. Demonstrate ability to teach transfer skills effectively in patients with movement dysfunction.

Target Audience: Undergraduate of Physiotherapy

Course duration: 30

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory for all the sessions for successful completion of the course.

Mode of instruction: Classroom Teaching, Practical Demonstration.

Assessment:

Pretest and posttest before and after VAC.

Course content:

Topic	Hours Allocated
Pre-Test	-
Introduction to Patient Transfer Skills	1 hour (Theory)
Fundamentals of Body Mechanics (Part 1)	1 hour (Theory)
Fundamentals of Body Mechanics (Part 2)	2 hours (Practical)
General Transfers: Bed ↔ Wheelchair	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
General Transfers: Chair ↔ Toilet and Floor ↔ Chair	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
Assisted Walking Techniques	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
Specialized Transfers: Spinal Injury Patients	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
Specialized Transfers: Stroke Patients	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
Specialized Transfers: Head Injury Patients	1 hour (Theory) + 2 hours (Practical)
Assistive Devices and Equipment (Part 1)	2 hours (Theory)
Assistive Devices and Equipment (Part 2)	4 hours (Practical)
Communication and Patient Engagement (Part 1)	1 hour (Theory)
Communication and Patient Engagement (Part 2)	2 hours (Practical)
Practicum and Case Studies (Part 1)	3 hours (Practical)
Practicum and Case Studies (Part 2)	3 hours (Practical)
Post Test	-

For Registration:

Please use the following link or scan the QR code to register

<https://forms.gle/me51CPTzVu4923dC9>

Certificate will be issued only on successful submission of the feedback form and assessment.

The link for the feedback and assessment form will be shared after the course

Course instructors

1. Dr. Senthil Kumar
Professor
2. Mr. Ranjith Anumasa
Associate Professor
3. Ms. Kavitha Rani N
Assistant professor
4. Mr. Saravanan J
Assistant professor
5. Mr. Naveen Kumar I
Assistant professor
6. Mr. Shashwath P Naidu
Assistant professor

