Annexure - II

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Medical College"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.
8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision
9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduaher.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

1 General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

Annexure - II

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.
8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Academy Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Academy. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Academy. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Academy shall vest with and remain with the Academy, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Academy all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Academy may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Academy, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Academy in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Academy all documents or papers that may be requested by the Academy to enable the Academy or Patients of the Academy to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Academy, I agree to promptly return to the Academy all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Academy, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Academy.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Academy or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Academy and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Academy, its Intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Academy in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Academy. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Academy.

3. I represent and warrant to the Academy that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Academy. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Academy, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Academy, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Academy and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Academy. The Academy considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Academy to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Academy, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Academy is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Academy or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Academy.

10. I understand that the Academy may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Academy may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Academy. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Academy in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

Dear Dr Imran,

Sub: Letter of Appointment.

We welcome you to Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College. We believe that you will be a valuable addition to the Medical College team and wishes you all success in this assignment. We are pleased to appoint you on the following terms and conditions,

A.	Designation	:	Assistant Professor
B.	Department	:	Pharmacology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	10th February, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 18,00,000 p.a. (Rupees Eighteen Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3362

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related tc network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Annexure - II

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Academy Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Academy. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Academy. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Academy shall vest with and remain with the Academy, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Academy all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Academy may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Academy, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Academy in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Academy all documents or papers that may be requested by the Academy to enable the Academy or Patients of the Academy to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Academy, I agree to promptly return to the Academy all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Academy, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Academy.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Academy or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Academy and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Academy, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Academy in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Academy. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Academy.

3. I represent and warrant to the Academy that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Academy. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Academy, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Academy, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Academy and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Academy. The Academy considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Academy to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Academy, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Academy is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Academy shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Academy or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Academy.

10. I understand that the Academy may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Academy may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Academy. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Academy in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

Apurva Vardhan

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to you function or the location to which you are so relocated.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

Zubiya S. Fathima

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. 1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

K P M

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

B.	Department	:	Radiology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	16th April, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 18,60,120 p.a (Rupees Eighteen Lakhs Sixty Thousand Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3381

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sdumc.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient Information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

i. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	1st March, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 1200000 p.a (Twelve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3388

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

i. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. 1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related t network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

B.	Department	:	Obstetrics & Gynaecology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	7th March, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 12,00,000 p.a (Twelve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3396

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related tc network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

F.	Employee Code	:	C3405

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

Dr. K. Meghana Sai

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Academy Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Academy. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Academy. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Academy shall vest with and remain with the Academy, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Academy all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Academy may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Academy, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Academy in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Academy all documents or papers that may be requested by the Academy to enable the Academy or Patients of the Academy to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Academy, I agree to promptly return to the Academy all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Academy, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Academy.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Academy or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Academy and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Academy, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Academy in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Academy. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Academy.

3. I represent and warrant to the Academy that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Academy. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Academy, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Academy, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Academy and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Academy. The Academy considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Academy to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Academy, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Academy is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Academy or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Academy.

10. I understand that the Academy may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Academy may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Academy. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Academy in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

1. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sdumc.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website

(https://www.sduaher.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to you function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related t network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measure unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

2. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website

(https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Tweleve(12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

1. General Terms and Conditions

This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medic College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirr that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

Annexure - II

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.
8. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

J Usharee

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. 1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to you function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve(12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduaher.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Medical College"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Medical College"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

2. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 12,00,000 p.a (Rupees Tweleve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3437

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Tweleve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. 1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

D.	Date of Joining	:	7th April, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 12,00,000 p.a (Twelve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3441

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

   a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

   b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

   c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

   d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

   e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

Dear Dr Megha,

Sub: Letter of Appointment

We welcome you to Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College. We believe that you will be a valuable addition to the Medical College team and wishes you all success in this assignment. We are pleased to appoint you on the following terms and conditions,

A.	Designation	:	Senior Resident
B.	Department	:	Ophthalmology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	10th April, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 12,00,000 p.a. (Rupees Tweleve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3444

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Eighteen (18) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

   It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and, its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Eighteen (18) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

   It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sdumc.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Tweleve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. 1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

   a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

   b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sdumc.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and, its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient Information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

K. Meghana

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 27,00,000 p.a. (Rupees Twenty Seven Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3457

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety(90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to one months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety(90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

Dear Dr Tejus,

Sub: Letter of Appointment.

We welcome you to Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College. We believe that you will be a valuable addition to the Medical College team and wishes you all success in this assignment. We are pleased to appoint you on the following terms and conditions,

A.	Designation	:	Assistant Professor
B.	Department	:	Surgical Oncology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	6th May, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 30,00,000 p.a. (Rupees Thirty Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3461

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety(90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to one months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

K. Mohan

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	5th May, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 27,00,000 p.a. (Rupees Twenty Seven Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3464

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety(90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to one months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

13. You are obligated to Fulfill a mandatory One-Year term of employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College, Tamaka, Kolar.

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient Information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Tweleve(12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Academy, University and Hospital"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Academy Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Academy. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Academy. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Academy shall vest with and remain with the Academy, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Academy all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Academy may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Academy, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Academy in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Academy all documents or papers that may be requested by the Academy to enable the Academy or Patients of the Academy to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Academy, I agree to promptly return to the Academy all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Academy, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Academy.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Academy or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Academy and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Academy, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Academy ir respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Academy. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Academy.

3. I represent and warrant to the Academy that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Academy. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Academy, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Academy, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Academy and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Academy. The Academy considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Academy to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Academy, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Academy is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Academy shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Academy or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Academy.

10. I understand that the Academy may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Academy may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Academy. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Academy in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.
8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision
9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

B.	Department	:	Radiology
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	14th May, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 18,60,000 p.a (Rupees Eighteen Lakhs Sixty Thousand Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3472

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sdumc.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

D. R.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

D. R.

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

Radhika

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

Annexure - II

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and, its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of Eighteen Months thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.
8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision
9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

Nischitha. kl

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the Service Rules of SDUAHER , during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and, its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

Adarsh Reddy M P

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

Adarsh Reddy H.P

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Medical College or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Medical College and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Medical College, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Medical College in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the

absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department

B.	Department	:	General Surgery
C.	Location	:	Tamaka, Kolar
D.	Date of Joining	:	28th May, 2025
E.	Compensation (CTC)	:	INR. 12,00,000 p.a (Rupees Tweleve Lakhs Only)
F.	Employee Code	:	C3489

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduaher.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective Service Rules of SDUAHER, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

d. You are solely responsible for declarations and implications arising thereof for all Income Tax purposes.

e. Your remuneration has been arrived at on the basis of your specific background and professional merit. We expect you to keep the Compensation details confidential at all times.

6. Other Benefits

You will be entitled to the following as per Medical College policies:

a. Leave and Holidays as applicable below to your category of employees and location

b. Perquisites, if any, as applicable to your category or employees and/or based on functional / operational requirements as determined by the Medical College.

e. Period of absence without wages will not be considered for computation of period of service for arriving the Gratuity benefit entitlement.

a You must effectively, diligently and to the best of your ability perform all responsibilities and ensure results that meet Medical College objectives.

b You will keep the Medical College informed of any change in your residential address or in your civil status.

c You must not engage in activities that have an adverse impact on the reputation/image and business of the Medical College, whether directly or indirectly. If you / your dependent family member have a financial / gainful interest in any business with the Medical College / its subsidiaries, then it would be obligatory on your part to tender a written declaration to the Management to the above effect, before such a deal is entered into.

d. You may be required to undertake travel for Medical College's work for which you will be reimbursed travel expenses as per the Medical College policy applicable to your category of employees.

e. All employees of the Medical College are required to ensure integrity in all aspects of the functioning and operations. You are expected to comply with all the Service Rules and policies of the Medical College including the Code of Conduct, Information Security Policy and all other policies as they form an integral part of the terms of your employment.

f. Any matter or situation or incident that may arise that could potentially result or has resulted in any violation of the policies or this letter, shall immediately be brought to the notice of your Manager or Human Resources.

g. You will be responsible for the safe keeping and return, in good condition and order of all the properties and equipment of the Medical College which may be in your use, custody or charge.

7. Confidentiality and Copyright

   You agree to sign and abide by the provisions of the enclosed "Confidential Information, Intellectual Property Rights and Non-Compete agreement" all times during your employment and the said agreement is marked as Annexure - II which shall form part of this appointment letter.

8. Force Majeure: Neither of the parties will be in breach of this Agreement to the extent that such party is unable to perform due to any event of "force majeure", including, without limitation, fire, explosion, earthquake, epidemic, war, strike, riot, civil disobedience, Act of God or any governmental law, decree or ordinance, and neither party shall be liable to the other for any of its obligations hereunder during the period that such "force majeure" event remains in effect.

9. This offer shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The courts at Kolar alone shall have jurisdiction in the event of any dispute.

10. In the absence of our receiving your signed acceptance of this letter of appointment, this will be deemed to have been rejected by you and shall lapse. This letter of appointment along with your acceptance constitutes a binding agreement between yourself and the Medical College.

Welcome to Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College of Higher Education and Research and we wish you the best.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Academy and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Academy, I agree to the following:

1. Academy Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Academy. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Academy. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Academy shall vest with and remain with the Academy, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Academy all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Academy may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Academy, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Academy.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Academy in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Academy all documents or papers that may be requested by the Academy to enable the Academy or Patients of the Academy to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Academy, I agree to promptly return to the Academy all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Academy, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Academy.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Academy or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Academy and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Academy, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Academy in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Academy I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Academy. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Academy.

3. I represent and warrant to the Academy that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Academy. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Academy, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Academy, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Academy and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Academy. The Academy considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Academy to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Academy, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Academy is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision.

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Academy shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Academy or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Academy.

Abdulkareem A

10. I understand that the Academy may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Academy may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Academy. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Academy in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Medical College, I agree to the following:

1. Medical College Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Medical College, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Medical College. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Medical College. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Medical College shall vest with and remain with the Medical College, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Medical College all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Medical College may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Medical College, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Medical College.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Medical College in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Medical College all documents or papers that may be requested by the Medical College to enable the Medical College or Patients of the Medical College to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Medical College, I agree to promptly return to the Medical College all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Medical College,

including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Medical College.

2. Student and Patient Records

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Medical College. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Medical College.

3. I represent and warrant to the Medical College that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Medical College. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Medical College, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Medical College, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.
4. During the course of my employment with the Medical College and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Medical College. The Medical College considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Medical College to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Medical College, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Medical College is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

Syed Tajzam

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision.

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Medical College shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Medical College or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Medical College.

10. I understand that the Medical College may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Medical College may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Medical College. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Medical College in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

1. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Medical College's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Medical College reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Medical College, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Medical College are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Medical College, the Medical College shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Medical College website (https://www.sduu.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Medical College, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Medical College at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 65 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Medical College. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Medical College has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Medical College.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Medical College may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Medical College may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Medical College would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Medical College giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Medical College reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Ninety (90) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Medical College on giving Three months notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Medical College. In case you leave the employment of the Medical College without serving the prescribed notice, the Medical College will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Three months salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Medical College or Medical College's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Medical College.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Medical College reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Medical College will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Medical College may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Medical College issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Medical College shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

a. You will be eligible to receive the compensation as per details in the Annexure.

b. You will be entitled to other compensation and benefits in accordance with the Medical College's relevant employment policies, rules and regulations as modified and intimated to you from time to time. The Policies are subject to change at any point on Medical College's discretion.

c. Your compensation will be reviewed periodically as per the Medical College's policy. Changes in your compensation are carried out at the sole discretion of the Medical College and will be subject to and based on effective performance and results during the period and other relevant criteria.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Medical College and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Hospital, I agree to the following:

1. Hospital Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Hospital. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Hospital. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Hospital shall vest with and remain with the Hospital, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Hospital all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Hospital may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Hospital, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Hospital in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Hospital all documents or papers that may be requested by the Hospital to enable the Hospital or Patients of the Hospital to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Hospital, I agree to promptly return to the Hospital all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Hospital, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Hospital.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Hospital or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Hospital and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Hospital, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Hospital in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Hospital. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Hospital.

3. I represent and warrant to the Hospital that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Hospital. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Hospital, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Hospital, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Hospital and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Hospital. The Hospital considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Hospital to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Hospital, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Hospital is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Hospital or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Hospital.

10. I understand that the Hospital may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Hospital may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Hospital. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Hospital in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

As a condition of my employment with Sri Devaraj Urs Academy of Higher Education and Research and. its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Hospital, University and Academy"), and in consideration of my employment with the Hospital and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Hospital, I agree to the following:

1. Hospital Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Hospital. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Hospital. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Hospital shall vest with and remain with the Hospital, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Hospital all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Hospital may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Hospital, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Hospital in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Hospital all documents or papers that may be requested by the Hospital to enable the Hospital or Patients of the Hospital to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Hospital, I agree to promptly return to the Hospital all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Hospital, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Hospital.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Hospital or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Hospital and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Hospital, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how, and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Hospital in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Hospital. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Hospital.

3. I represent and warrant to the Hospital that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Hospital. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Hospital, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Hospital, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Hospital and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Hospital. The Hospital considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Hospital to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Hospital, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Hospital is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.
6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.
7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Hospital or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Hospital.

10. I understand that the Hospital may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Hospital may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Hospital. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Hospital in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

12. In the Employment Tenure you will be reporting to the concerned Head of the Department.

F.	Employee Code	:	H4064

I. General Terms and Conditions

a. This letter contains broad terms and conditions of service governing this employment which are subject to change from time to time at the Hospital's discretion. Hence you are requested to contact Human Resources / your Manager for policies / rules / regulations, which are applicable to you.

b. We trust that you have not provided us with any false declaration or willfully suppressed any material information. If you have, the Hospital reserves the right to take appropriate action, up to and including the termination of employment without notice. It must be specifically understood that this appointment is made based on your proficiency in the technical / professional skills you have declared to possess as per your application for employment with the Hospital, and on your ability to handle any assignment / job independently anywhere in India or overseas. In the event, at a later date, any of the statements/particulars furnished by you to the Hospital are found to be false or misleading, or your work performance falls short of the minimum standards required by the Hospital, the Hospital shall have the right to terminate your services, without any notice period, notwithstanding any other terms and conditions stipulated herein.

c. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from providing the services required under this employment. It is contingent on you to update the company on any likely change of your immigrant status at the location of service.

Anusha.S.R

d. Your employment is governed by this letter and the applicable rules and policies provided in the "Service Rules" available with Human Resources and also in the Academy website (https://www.sduaher.ac.in/source/uploads/files/Human%20Resource%20Policy.pdf). In case of a conflict between terms of this letter and any other policy document, the appointment letter shall prevail.

e. This appointment letter is being made to you subject to your producing the relevant documents as intimated to you.

f. Fitness to Work: At any time during the tenure of service, the management has right to refer you for medical examination to the appropriate authority to ascertain the fitness for service continuation.

g. Transfer: You may be transferred to any of other offices/branches or subsidiaries/affiliates of the Hospital, either domestic or abroad, should the business need arise. You will be subject to and hereby confirm that you will abide by the applicable Service Rules as may be in effect from time to time with respect to your function or the location to which you are so relocated.

h. Retirement: You shall retire from the services of the Hospital at the end of the month in which you attains the age of 60 years, which is the age of retirement for all employees. The age of retirement shall be reckoned in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

i. This letter is made on the clear understanding that your employment is on a full time basis and that you shall not engage yourself directly or indirectly in any business or service or monetary position other than that of the Hospital. In specific cases, e.g. writing for a magazine / journal, speaking at various forums, participating any research programs etc., explicit permission from the Hospital has to be taken prior to your engaging in such activity. At any time, if it is found that there is any breach of this condition on your part, your services are liable to be immediately terminated at the sole discretion of the Hospital.

j. In addition, this employment is of continuous nature and does not entail any compensation for any overtime worked by you.

2. Key Result Areas:

You shall be briefed upon your Key Result Area (KRA) milestones and the applicable timelines for review within a month from your date of joining. This document shall be submitted to Human Resource department after a sign off is obtained from both parties and will set guiding principles for your performance.

3. Date of Commencement and Working Hours:

Your appointment with R L Jalappa Hospital and Research Centre will be effective on your joining date. Your work hours will be intimated to you by your reporting manager. Please note that the work hours applicable to you, as a service organization, accords high priority to customer service levels and therefore depending upon criticality of the requirements you shall be required to accommodate all changes to your work schedule as decided and communicated to you by the management from time to time.

Anusha. S.R

4. Probation and Notice Period

a. You will be on probation for an initial period of Twelve (12) Months from the date of your joining. The Hospital may confirm your services based on satisfactory performance during the probation period. In case your performance is found unsatisfactory during the probation period, the Hospital may, at its option, terminate your employment with immediate effect or extend the probation period.

It is understood that the Hospital would be fully entitled to terminate your services with Thirty (30) Days notice during the probation period without assigning any reason. Similarly you may leave the services of the Hospital giving 30 (Thirty) days notice without assigning any reason at any time during the probationary period.

b. After confirmation, the Hospital reserves the right to terminate your service on giving a Thirty (30) Days notice or payment of salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, you will be at liberty to resign from services of the Hospital on giving Thirty Days notice or forfeiture of salary in lieu thereof. The prerogative to demand the employee to serve the notice period or recover salary in lieu of rests with the Hospital. In case you leave the employment of the Hospital without serving the prescribed notice, the Hospital will have the right to recover an amount equivalent to Thirty Days salary and shall be entitled to make deductions from your other dues to the extent of the damage or loss to the Hospital or Hospital's property if any, and also to the extent of any advance made to you by the Hospital.

c. Your services will be governed by the terms and conditions of this letter and the model standing orders issued by the respective state Government and the Service Rules, during the notice period. In case of any indiscipline or misconduct on your part during the notice period or otherwise, the Hospital reserves the right not to accept your resignation and/or consider the earlier acceptance of resignation as null and void and terminate your services with immediate effect. In such an event, the Hospital will not be liable to pay you any dues whatsoever.

d. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in case of any misconduct, or indiscipline on your part during the course of your employment, breach of this Agreement, breach of the applicable Service Rules or any other applicable policies governing your employment, including unauthorized absence / leave, the Hospital may terminate your employment immediately.

e. On termination of your employment, you shall return to the office all articles of the Hospital issued to you by the office and the same in your custody. The Hospital shall have the right to claim compensation from you for the damage or loss of such articles.

5. Compensation

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with R L Jalappa Hospital and Research Centre and its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together the " Medical College, University and Hospital"), and in consideration of my employment with the Hospital and my receipt of the compensation now and hereafter paid to me by the Hospital, I agree to the following:

1. Hospital Intellectual Property

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital, it is likely that I will come into possession of or become familiar with confidential information relating to identity, personnel, patients, vendors, their present and future requirements, pricing and other commercial information, terms and conditions of contracts and transactions between the patients and vendors, patents, trademarks, copyrights, inventions, prototypes, models, drawings, discoveries, concepts, trade secrets, formulas and systems that relate to the business and that are not a matter of public record, specifications, process information and other technical information used in the business and business plans of the Hospital. I hereby agree that no part of such confidential information will be disclosed by me to any person without the prior written approval of the Hospital. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such confidential information both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

b. I further agree that all copyright, ownership and intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment with the Hospital shall vest with and remain with the Hospital, or the Vendor as the case may be. I agree that I will not be entitled to claim any right, title or interest therein, including moral rights. In the event it should be established that such work does not qualify as a Work Made for Hire, I agree to and do hereby assign to Hospital all of my right, title, and interest in such work product including, but not limited to, all copyrights, patents, trademarks, and other proprietary rights. I further acknowledge and agree that the Hospital may, in its sole discretion, assign to third parties all such intellectual property rights.

c. I further agree that I shall not disclose to any person all or any part of the intellectual property rights in any work of any nature carried out by me during the course of my employment, belonging to the Hospital, Patients or vendors as may be the case. I agree to maintain strict confidentiality in respect of all such intellectual property rights both during my employment and subsequent to my employment with the Hospital.

d. Both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, I agree to fully cooperate with Hospital in the creation, establishment, protection and enforcement of any intellectual property rights that may derive as a result of the services performed by me under the terms of this Agreement. This shall include executing, acknowledging, and delivering to the Hospital all documents or papers that may be requested by the Hospital to enable the Hospital or Patients of the Hospital to create, establish, publish or protect said intellectual property rights.

e. If requested by the Hospital, I agree to promptly return to the Hospital all materials, writings, equipment, models, mechanisms, and the like obtained from or through the Hospital, including, but not limited to, all Confidential Information, all of which I recognize is the sole and exclusive property of the Hospital.

f. I declare that as of today, I am not a member of the Board of Directors, a partner or employee, nor do I hold any other office, in any other Hospital or body corporate whether organized for profit or not. In the event that I am permitted to hold any office, whether for profit or otherwise in such organization, I shall immediately inform the Hospital and I undertake to maintain the confidentiality of all information pertaining to the Hospital, its intellectual property including methodologies, processes and know how and its business activities and agree to be bound by any other obligations owed to the Hospital in respect of third parties.

2. Student and Patient Records

a. During the course of my employment with the Hospital I may be asked to work on specific project/projects of relating to Student / Patient information. I agree that during such assignments I will fully, comply with the rules and requirements relating to non-disclosure, confidentiality, security checks and procedures or any other related matters as may be prescribed.

b. I agree to strictly and conscientiously abide by the rules, regulations and security policies related to network security both at the Hospital. I shall adhere to the specific security measures unequivocally and to the satisfaction of the Hospital.

3. I represent and warrant to the Hospital that I am not a party to or otherwise bound by any agreement that may, in any way, restrict my right or ability to enter into this Agreement or otherwise be employed by the Hospital. Additionally, I agree that I will not reveal to the Hospital, or otherwise utilize in my employment with the Hospital, any proprietary trade secrets or confidential information of any previous employer.

4. During the course of my employment with the Hospital and for a period of one year thereafter, I undertake not to enter upon or carry on, either directly or indirectly, any activity which is similar to or in competition with the business or activities carried on by the Hospital. The Hospital considers knowledge about its employees, their skills, and the type of work they have done while employed at the Hospital to be confidential information, as covered under my Employee Agreement. I acknowledge that on separation from the Hospital, soliciting, directly or indirectly, the employment or services of any person(s) employed by the Hospital is a breach of my obligations under my Employee Agreement.

5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. All disputes hereunder shall be resolved in the courts of Kolar. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of such courts, agree to accept service of process by mail, and waive any jurisdictional or venue defenses otherwise available.

6. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns.

Naveen

7. No waiver by either party of any default shall be deemed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent default of the same or other provisions of this Agreement.

8. If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision, and such invalid provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement. Such provision shall be replaced by a equivalent provisions which have the nearest permissible economic benefit to such unenforceable provision

9. This Agreement and the rights and obligations there-under are personal with respect to Employee and may not be assigned by any act of Employee or by operation of law. The Hospital shall, however, have the absolute, unfettered right to assign this Agreement to a successor in interest to the Hospital or to the purchaser of any of the assets of the Hospital.

10. I understand that the Hospital may initiate appropriate legal action against me for the breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and to recover the costs of such legal action, including all damages and attorney fees. The Hospital may also, at its discretion, terminate my employment with the Hospital. In the event of a breach of any of the terms and conditions described above, I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the Hospital in respect of any claims, actions, proceedings and the like that may be instituted in any court or other judicial body as a result.

11. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement, and supersedes all other previous Agreements. It can only be modified by an agreement in writing and signed by the parties hereto.
