About PARVA

MORE THAN A FEST.
A MEETING OF REALMS.

Parva is the annual cultural fest of Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College—a celebration of creativity, expression and the many worlds that live within us.

What began as a platform for talent has now grown into a vibrant confluence of art, music, dance, drama, literature and more, uniting dreamers, doers and storytellers from across colleges.

At its heart, Parva is about people—the ideas they share, the scenes they roll and the connections they create. It's a space where medicine meets imagination, where passion finds a stage and where every individual adds a new dimension to the story.

Step in. Explore. Belong.
Because at Parva, every reality has a place.
