🎓 Another Feather in the Cap 🐦

With immense joy and gratitude, I share a proud and fulfilling moment—officially conferred with the prestigious Spine Fellowship degree by SSHRI (Stavya Spine Hospital & Research Institute).

A dream realized, a journey completed, and a new chapter in my professional life begins. “S” stands for Sandesh—and now, it proudly stands for Spine too! ➡️
SOON

I bow in deep gratitude to the Almighty, whose unseen hand guided me through the darkest hours and illuminated the path toward my calling.

To my beloved parents—my unwavering pillars of strength and sacrifice—thank you for your endless love, prayers, and belief in me. This moment belongs as much to you as it does to me.

Above all, I offer my deepest gratitude and
